

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is standing in a grassy area in front of a rustic wooden building. She is wearing a black, long-sleeved, button-down shirt tucked into black denim-style shorts with a matching belt. She is also wearing white sneakers with black stripes. Her right hand is resting on a wooden structure, and her left hand is in her pocket. The building behind her has a balcony with a dark railing and a large wooden wheel mounted on the wall. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.
